

In the fall of 2006, we will admit the first class to be enrolled in our new associate degree program. The application for that program is not yet available. Since the application deadline for fall, 2005, has passed, we have removed our application from this site. The new one will be posted as soon as it is available. Thank you for your interest and your patience.